The Moneyless Man.

[The following was composed by our friend the talented poet, Henry T. Stanton, esq., of Mayville, Ky., the son of Hon. R. H. Stanton. It was recently recited by one of the first readers on the English stage, in the city of London, and won the applause of thousands of England's most classic and refined.]—Louisville Courier.

Is there no secret place on the face of the earth
Where charity dwelleth, where virtue hath birth?
Where bosoms in mercy and kindness will
heave,
And the poor and the wretched shall "ask and receive."
Is there no place on earth where a knook from the poor
Will bring a kind angel to open the door?
Ah! search the wide world wherever you can,
There is no open door for a moneyless man.

Go, look in yon hall, where the chandelier's light
Drives off with its splendor the darkness of night!
Where the rich hang velvet in shadowy fold Sweeps gracefully down with its trimming of
gold,
And the mirrors of silver take up and renew,
In the lighted vistas, the widening view—
Go there in your patches, and find if you can
A welcoming smile for a moneyless man!

Go look in yon church of the cloud-reaching spire,
Which gives back to the sun his same look of
red fire;
Where the arches and columns are gorgeous within,
And the walls seem as pure as a soul without
sin;
Go down the long aisle—see the rich and the great,
In the pomp and the pride of their worldly estate—
Walk down in your patches and find if you can,
Who opens the pew to moneyless man!

Go, look in the banks, where Mammon has told
His hundreds and thousands of silver and
gold;
Where, safe from the hands of the starving
and poor,
Lies piled upon pile of the glittering ore;
Walk up to the counter—ah, there you may stay,
Till your limbs grow old and your hair turns
gray,
And you'll find at the bank no one of the clan,
With money to lend to a moneyless man!

Then go to your hotel, no raven has fed
The wife who has suffered too long for her bread;
Kneel down by the pallet and kiss the death
frost
From the lips of the angel your poverty's lost;
Then turn in your agony upward to God,
And bless, whilst it smites you, the chastening
rod;
And you'll find at the end of your life's little span,
There's a welcome above for a moneyless man!

THE TALLOW CANDLE THEORY.—Many persons have heard it asserted that a tallow candle, when fired from an ordinary gun, with the usual charge of powder, at a deal board three quarters of an inch thick, will pass through the board, but very few have not seen it done believe it. On Monday a party of rifle men, for the purpose of deciding a bet on the subject, adjourned to the butts of the North Middlesex Rifles at Child's Hill, where a board of the thickness described having been fixed in an upright position, a common half-penny die was fired at from a fowling-piece, from a distance of about fifteen paces. The candle struck the board with its full length, and passed through, leaving a hole exactly the shape of the candle. The remains of the candle were found scattered in pieces resembling snow flakes on the high mound of earth in the rear of the board. A second candle, when fired from the fowling-piece, passed through the board, making a circular hole, which was, however, very jagged round the edges. A third candle carried away a large piece of the board nine inches long and three inches broad, breaking away by the boundary on one side of the hole made by the first shot. A candle fired from a rifle failed to pass through the board, the grooves of the rifle stripping the tallow from the wick as it passed out. The smooth-bore fowling-piece was loaded each time with two and a half drachms of powder, a small piece of paper as a wad, and a common tallow die, which had not been specially prepared in any manner.—Court Journal.

HOW FRANKLIN OBTAINED A SITUATION.—When quite a youth, Franklin went to London, entered a printing-office, and inquired if he could get employment as a printer.

"Where are you from?" inquired the man.

"America," was the reply.

"Ah!" said the foreman, "from America!" a lad from America seeking employment as a printer! Well do you really understand the art of printing? Can you set type?

Franklin stepped to one of the cases, and in a very brief space set up the following passage from the first chapter of the Gospel by St. John:

"Nathaniel saith unto him, Can any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip said unto him, Come and see."

It was done so quick, so accurately, and contained a delicate reproof so appropriate and powerful, that it at once gave him character and standing with all in the office.

POULTERERS' FRIEND.
A CERTAIN CURE FOR GAPES AND OTHER DISEASES IN CHICKENS AND TURKEYS.
A Certain Preventive of Chicken Cholera.
Will prevent disease in all kinds of fowl, and promote an increase of fat. Read the following:
Jefferson, Frederick co., Md.,
July 22d, 1867.

Messrs. Clotworthy & Co.:
Gents—The wonderful cures which have been made by your Poulterers' Friend cannot fail to interest all who raise poultry. A gentleman of this village has been experimenting on chickens with the gapes. He tried your Poulterers' Friend, according to the directions, and it had the desired effect in removing the worm, effectually relieving the chicken at once. Since then I have had many calls for it, and it has been used extensively with the same result. It is of incalculable value to all who raise poultry.
Respectfully,

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entered listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waited to ecstasy the living lyre, may rally with full confidence.
